3. Risk Disclosure

- 3.1. The User is aware and acknowledges that the information provided via our Website or RULL Application does not constitute an investment advice, financial advice, trading advice, or any other sort of advice or any regulated financial service. All the information is general and is not addressed to individual Users. We do not recommend you and are not responsible for your decisions to buy, sell, or hold Virtual Assets based on the information provided by us. The User is solely responsible for such decisions based on his financial situation and assessment of risks.

- 3.2. The User is aware and acknowledges that Crypto Assets as well as other Virtual Assets are known for their high price volatility, absence of any central authority, and predominantly absent legal regulation. Dealing with Virtual Assets may also expose you to operational risks, including, for example, where you may suffer losses due to failure of hardware, software, and internet connections.
- 3.3. There is no legal entity that controls and regulates Crypto Assets and other Virtual Assets. Rather, Crypto Assets and other Virtual Assets rely on decentralized blockchain technology to safeguard assets and their movements. In the event of a crisis, there is no entity that will protect the Virtual Assets market to minimize your losses.

4. RULL Application and Services

- 4.1. To use the RULL Application and Services, you must create the User account by registering through our Website or the RULL Application. Within the registration, you will (a) provide us with User's details, including your name, email address and a password, and (b) accept the terms of the Agreement and our Privacy policy.
- 4.2. You acknowledge that the RULL Application is intended solely for proper use of the supported Virtual Assets as designated in the Agreement or the RULL Application. Under no circumstances should you attempt to use the RULL Application to store, track, transfer, and manage any assets other than the supported Virtual Assets.
- 4.3. To use the Service, you must accept its Service Terms, if any. The scope of the currently available Services is shown in the RULL Application. Such Services may include:
 - (a) Crypto-management: Keeping Users' Virtual Assets wallets and tools for disposing with supported Virtual Assets, i.e. instruments enabling Users to store, track, transfer, and manage your balances of certain Virtual Assets that are supported by the RULL Application.
 - (b) Crypto Assets payment processor: Enabling the Users to send the supported Crypto Assets payments to payout recipients, including merchants that offer their products and/or services through the RULL Application (the "Merchants").
 - (c) Crypto Assets purchase: Enabling Users to purchase supported Crypto Assets under the conditions stated at Service Terms available at: https://rull.market/legal/RULL_CUSTCRYPTO_TERMS.pdf
 - (d) NFT Trading: Enabling Users to buy, store, re-sell and further dispose with supported NFT.
 - (e) NFT Purchase methods:

Buy- User may purchase NFT in the NFT Marketplace in exchange for Crypto assets. The NFT Marketplace will allow you to select the desired type of NFT and present you with the overview of the transaction consisting of information on (a) the NFT purchased and (b) the Fiat Currency spent. By clicking on the purchase button, you confirm the Purchase at the specified price. After a purchase is correctly realised, the User obtain a NFT Purchase agreement to the e-mail address that the User provided during registration.

Auction- You may purchase NFTs through the auction process. In a auction, a public reserve price is set. Once it is reached, it sets off a 24-hour countdown to the end of the Auction, allowing other collectors to bid before the deadline. Reserve auctions work well when you are not in a hurry to sell an NFT art piece, but want to get at least some money for it. Once the reserve price is set, there is no specific time frame in which it must be reached - but when it is, the timer goes off. Rull may pause, cancel, or discontinue your Auction transactions at its sole discretion without liability. The Rulls facilitates transactions between the buyer and seller in the Auction but is not a party to any agreement between the buyer and the seller of NFT(s) or between any users.

Freebie-We may offer the opportunity to earn NFTs for free by participating in certain challenges or marketing campaigns on the Platform, or by completing certain tasks that we may make generally available from time to time.

- (f) NFT Re-Sell: The User have right to re-sell obtained NFT to the third parties either by withdrawal from Customer account and deposit to another account; or by selling NFT in auction or by direct sale. The Company is not a party to any such Purchase Terms, which are solely between the buyer and the seller. The buyer and seller are entirely responsible for communicating, promulgating, agreeing to, and enforcing purchase Terms.
- (g) NFT Connect wallet: The User can connect the Rull wallet to browse the NFTs webs and browse the NFT Marketplace.
- (h) NFT Minting: „Minting“ an NFT is, uniquely publishing your token on the blockchain, for fee to the blockchain to make it purchasable. Minting an NFT means converting digital data into crypto collections or digital assets recorded on the blockchain. The digital products or files will be stored in a distributed ledger or decentralized database and cannot be edited, modified, or deleted.
- (i) NFT Royalties: „Royalties“ of an NFT is the amount that a will be paid to an Author in exchange for the rights to publish their NFT. Royalties are calculated as a percentage of NFT sales. For example, an author might earn some percentage of royalties on every NFT. Royalties will be distributed/ to Author on anonymous address or RULL profile.
- (j) Gold2 Trading: Enabling Users to buy, store and manage their gold positions on the selected exchange in accordance with the Gold2 Service Terms.

4.4. Unless otherwise explicitly provided for in these General Terms, the Service Terms or in the RULL Application, the Services are provided to Users free of charge.

9. Virtual Assets Transactions

9.1. By giving the respective command through your User Account, you authorize us to initiate and perform the Virtual Assets Transaction at the price stipulated in the RULL Application. We will process the Virtual Assets Transaction in accordance with the Agreement and your instructions. You should verify all transaction information prior to submitting your instruction. We assume no liability or responsibility for your instructions, and we do not guarantee the identity of any third party user or receiver of your Virtual Assets Transactions.

9.2. You cannot cancel, reverse, or change any Virtual Assets Transaction marked as complete or pending. You are solely responsible for maintaining an adequate balance and/or sufficient credit limits to initiate and perform the requested Virtual Assets Transaction. We are authorized to cancel the Virtual Assets Transaction if your payment method has insufficient funds or limits. In such case, we may suspend your access to the Services until such insufficient payment is addressed and resolved.

9.3. You acknowledge, agree, and accept that the Virtual Assets Transactions cannot be reversed once they are broadcasted to the relevant Virtual Assets network. It follows that after submitting your instruction you cannot cancel and terminate the respective Virtual Assets Transaction. This Article 9.3 applies also for Consumers. Based on Section 1837 of the Civil Code, the Consumer may not withdraw from a contract:

- (a) under which the Consumer was provided with services before the end of the time limit for withdrawal with (i) prior express consent of the Consumer and (ii) the Consumer knowing that in such case he cannot withdraw from the contract;
- (b) regarding a delivery of goods or services, the price of which depends on financial market disparities which (i) are irrespective of sellers will and (ii) may occur during the withdrawal period;
- (c) on a delivery of digital content that is not delivered on a physical carrier and has been delivered before the end of the time limit for withdrawal with (i) prior express consent of the Consumer and (ii) the Consumer knowing that in such case he cannot withdraw from the contract.

10. RULL Application Availability and Accuracy

- 10.1. Access to the RULL Application, the User Account, and/or Services may become limited or unavailable during times, especially in times of significant volatility or volume. This may result in your inability to initiate or complete Virtual Assets Transactions. It follows that the Company does not guarantee full availability of the RULL Application, your User Account, and/or Services at all times, including prompt and timely execution of your instructions and Virtual Assets Transactions.
- 10.2. The Company is under no circumstances liable for any damages arising from the reduced availability of the RULL Application, your User account, and/or Services.
- 10.3. Although we aim to provide only accurate and timely information through our RULL Application and/or Website, you acknowledge that such information may not always be entirely accurate, complete, or up to date. The information provided through our RULL Application and/or Website may be changed or updated from time to time without notice. As set forth in Article 3.1, all your decisions based on such information are your sole responsibility and we have no liability therefore.

- 11.7. In the event that the User has earned a Reward in violation of the terms of the Reference System, the terms of this Agreement or in any other unauthorized manner, the User shall be obliged to return the value of the Reward so earned and to compensate for the damages caused by such action.

12. Third-party content and performance

- 12.1. When using the RULL Application and/or the Website, the User may be processing or disposing with content that is not under the Company's control. Further, links to third-party materials or websites may be provided as a convenience but are not controlled by us. You acknowledge and agree that we are not responsible for any aspect of such referred information, content, products or services provided by any third party. The User acknowledges that the Company cannot control, and is not responsible for, any third-party data, content, products or services that the User accesses, downloads, receives, buys or otherwise uses while using the RULL Application and/or the Website, including any performance provided to the User by the Merchants (the "Third-Party Content").

- 12.2. Unless we expressly state otherwise, we do not own or control the underlying software protocols which govern the operation of the Virtual Assets. Such underlying protocols are considered a Third-Party Content and we assume no responsibility for the operation thereof.
- 12.3. The Company is not responsible for the Third-Party Content, its accuracy, timeliness or delivery. You are responsible for evaluating whether you want to access, obtain, or use Third-Party Content on your own risk. The Company makes no representations or warranties of any kind related to such Third-Party Content, and disclaims all such representations and warranties, whether express or implied. If you experience any problem with any Third-Party Content, you should resolve the dispute directly with the respective third party.
- 12.4. You may be charged fees for the Third-Party Content you use by its respective provider. We are not responsible for any Third-Party Content 's fees or terms thereof. Your use of any Third-Party Content is solely your responsibility, and you agree to comply with all terms and conditions applicable to any Third-Party Content.
- 12.5. The Company does not guarantee the functionality or security of any network operations.

13. AML Measures

- 13.1. The Company has adopted certain measures under the internal policy system to prevent and mitigate possible risks associated with illegal activity such as money laundering or terrorist financing implemented on the basis of Anti Money Laundering regulations (the "AML Measures").

13.2. Obligated Entity.

The User understands that the Company is an obliged entity in terms of the Section 2 par. 1, letter l) of the Act No. 253/2008 Coll. on Selected Measures against Legalization of Proceeds from Crime and Financing of Terrorism, as amended (the "AML Act"), as an entity providing services related to Virtual Assets.

13.3. AML Measures.

The User acknowledges that the Company is obliged to, amongst other obligations, properly identify and control the User, keep information concerning the User and his transactions, and report, postpone or refuse to execute suspicious transactions.

The Company reserves the right to investigate the Users, even repeatedly, who indicate any form of suspicious, risky, or unusual activity. The Company also reserves the right to collect User's identification information to fulfill its obligations under the AML Act.

Before and at any time during the duration of the Agreement, the Company reserves the right to request up to date documents from the Users for the purpose of proving that the User complies with the AML Act (e.g., ID documents, international passports, bank statements and utility bills). The User undertakes to provide the requested documents.

All User's identification information will be used, archived, shared, and protected in compliance with the legal regulation. More detail is provided in the Privacy Policy.

13.4. User Cooperation.

The User undertakes to provide the Company upon its request with all cooperation in fulfilling its obligations under the AML Act, including providing without delay all information and documents necessary to verify the User's identification and the nature of the transaction, as well as information and documents on the sources of funds and Virtual Assets used and the purpose of transactions.

13.5. Declaration of the User.

The User declares that the funds or Virtual Assets stored and used by the User do not come from the proceeds from crime and the purpose of buying and selling the Virtual Assets is not to launder the proceeds from crime or to carry out transactions aimed at supporting or financing terrorism within the meaning of the AML Act.

13.6. The User undertakes not to use the Services:

- (a) to transfer assets from or to countries that are considered risky or high-risk with respect to money laundering or terrorist financing; the list of these countries is published and updated by the organization FATF-GAFI via its website; and
- (b) to transfer assets to or from a person originating in the abovementioned risky or high-risk country or who is in association with those countries; (i) in case of a natural person, origin means any state of which that person is a national, and at the same time all other states in which the person is registered for permanent or other residence, (ii) in case of a legal entity, origin means the state in which the entity has its registered office, and at the same time all states in which the entity has its branch, organizational unit or place of business.

12.7. Limits.

The User acknowledges that in connection with performance of its obligations under the AML Act, the Company may, without prior notice, exercise volume restrictions (per trade or the sum of trades) or restrictions on number of executed trades per User, group of users or a specific wallet with Virtual Assets.

12.8. Supervision.

Activities of the Company as the obliged entity fall under the supervision of the Financial Analytical Office.

14. Copyright

14.1. Basic information on the RULL Application

The Company has developed the RULL Application which consists of computer programs, their files and program components. The RULL Application (as a computer program or mobile app) can include carrier media, printed documentation and on-line internet files for installation on a mobile device. These General Terms and copyright protection apply to all the above-mentioned parts and accessories of the RULL Application.

14.2. Reservation of Rights.

All rights to the RULL Application and its content, including page layout, texts, photos, films, graphics, trademarks, logos and other content and elements, belong to the Company. Without a prior written consent of the Company, it is forbidden to copy, modify or otherwise use the RULL Application or any part thereof contrary to its purpose under the Agreement.

15. License.

15.1. By conclusion of the Agreement, the Company grants to the User a limited, non-exclusive, non-sublicensable, and non-transferable license, subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, to access and use the RULL Application solely for the approved purposes determined by the Agreement. Any other use of the RULL Application is prohibited.

15.2. The Company reserves all rights in respect to the Application and the Services and you agree that the Agreement does not grant you any rights in or licenses to any intellectual property except for the limited license set forth above. The User shall not modify, reverse engineer, copy, frame, scrape, rent, lease, loan, sell, distribute, or create derivative works based on the Application or the Services, in whole or in part.

16. Liability

16.1. The RULL Application and the Services are provided on an "as is" basis and "as available" basis, and the Company specifically disclaims and the User waives all representations and warranties of any kind, whether express or implied, to the maximum extent permitted by law.

16.2. Limitation of Liability

Except as otherwise required by law, in no event shall the Company (or its employees and contractors) be liable to the User for any direct, indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages or losses of any kind, arising out of or in connection with use or inability to use the RULL Application or Services.

Regardless of the above, if the Company is found liable to you for any individual claim or series of claims under the Agreement, our overall liability shall be limited to 100 % of the direct damages incurred by the User. For the purpose of this Article 14.2, "direct damage" means actual damage occurring as a direct result of a breach of an obligation and does not include any loss of profit or other subsequent or indirect damages or losses.

It is your responsibility to reflect the above limitations when using the RULL Application and making any Virtual Assets Transaction.

16.3. Indemnity

The User agrees to protect, defend, indemnify and hold the Company (and its officers, directors, employees, agents and contractors) harmless from any claims, demands, costs, expenses, losses, liabilities and damages arising from any User's breach of the Agreement, including any fraudulent, negligent or reckless act, omission or misuse of the RULL Application and/or Services.

16.4. Third-party Interventions.

The Company is not liable for errors or losses incurred because of a third-party intervention in the RULL Application or because of its use contrary to its purpose. When using the RULL Application, you may not use procedures that could adversely affect its operation and may not perform any activity that could allow you or any third party to interfere or misuse the RULL Application or Service or its components in a manner that would be contrary to their purpose.

16.5. Force Majeure

The Company is not liable for any failure or delay resulting from any abnormal or unforeseeable circumstances outside of our reasonable control, the consequences of which would have been unavoidable despite all efforts to the contrary, including but not limited to governmental action or acts of terrorism, earthquake, fire, flood, labor conditions, delays or failures caused by problems with another system or network, mechanical breakdown or data-processing failures or where we are bound by other legal obligations.

17. Non-Disclosure

17.1. Without the written consent of the Company, the User may not disseminate or provide any confidential information of the Company to third parties, including any information or facts concerning its know-how, technical and business procedures, business strategies and business contacts.

17.2. The obligation of confidentiality shall not apply to information that is publicly available or publicly known.

18. Privacy Policy and Data Protection

18.1. The conditions of the User's personal data processing, marketing communications as well as use of the cookies on the Website, are stipulated in a separate document - Privacy Policy available at: https://rull.app/legal/RULL_PRIVACY_POLICY.pdf

19. Suspension and Termination of the Agreement

- 19.1. We have the right to terminate the Agreement unilaterally at any time and for any reason by giving you not less than [10] days' e-mailed notice.
- 19.2. We have the right to suspend your use of the RULL Application, your User Account, or the Services and/or terminate the Agreement unilaterally and immediately due to any of the following:
 - (a) we have concerns that you have provided us with incorrect, incomplete and/or misleading information or documents, or failed to provide any required information or documents, or submitted documents where the veracity or authenticity is in doubt, or submitted documents and/or information that are not in conformity with requirements established by us or required by law;
 - (b) we have concerns that you have failed to notify us about a change in the information provided to us and/or about circumstances which have or are likely to have a negative impact on the due performance of your obligations under the Agreement;
 - (c) we reasonably suspect that you breached any other obligation and/or representation and warranty under the Agreement;
 - (d) there are circumstances that indicate the User is related to money laundering and/or terrorist financing activity, including you being engaged in the field of activity with a high risk of money laundering and/or terrorist financing;
 - (e) we have concerns that you use the RULL Application and/or Services for illegal, fraudulent and/or unfair activities;
 - (f) we have concerns about the security of your access data to the RULL Application, including your access data to the RULL Application being used by a third party;
 - (g) we have concerns that your unlawful actions may cause us losses or harm or damage our reputation;
 - (h) you request the termination of the Agreement which is associated with User account termination.
- 19.3. When you decide to terminate your Rull account you will lose access, balance, addresses, NFTs and everything you've ever done in Rull account.
